The respondent is prohibited from:

Committing family violence against the protected person(s)

Note:

- The Family Violence Protection Act 2008 defines family violence as behaviour by a person towards a family member of that person that is physically or sexually abusive, emotionally or psychologically abusive, economically abusive, threatening, coercive, or in any other way controls or dominates a family member and causes that family member to feel fear for the safety or wellbeing of that family member or another person.

Family Violence includes behaviour that causes a child to hear or witness or otherwise be exposed to the effects of these behaviours.

- Intentionally damage any property of the protected person(s) or threaten to do so.
- Attempting to locate, follow the protected person(s) or keep him/her/them under surveillance.
- Publishing on the internet, by email or other electronic communication any material about the protected person(s).
- Contacting or communicating with the protected person(s) by any means.
- Approaching or remaining within metres of a protected person.
- Going to or remaining within metres of or any other place where the protected person lives, works or attends school/childcare.
- Getting another person to do anything the respondent must not do under this order.

The respondent may:

- (a) do anything that is permitted by a Family Law Act order, a child protection order or a written agreement about child arrangements; or
- (b) negotiate child arrangements by letter, email or text message; or
- (c) communicate with a protected person through a lawyer or mediator; or
- (d) arrange and/or participate in counselling or mediation; or
- (e) go to the home of a protected person, in the company of a police officer or a person chosen by the applicant, to collect personal property.

BUT ONLY if the respondent does not commit family violence while doing so.

It is also agreed:

- The respondent must arrange to return personal property belonging to the protected person/s within 2 days of the service of the order.
- The respondent must arrange to return jointly owned property within 2 days of the service of the order.

Any firearms authority held by the respondent to be cancelled. The respondent must hand any firearms in his/her possession to police immediately.

Any weapons approval or weapons exemption held by the respondent to be revoked. The respondent must hand any weapons in his/her possession to police.

The respondent will contact the Men's Referral Service (Ph: 9428 2899 or 1800 065 973) to obtain information about services that may assist him.
